

Marlene W. Rizzo is the Executive Secretary for the Onondaga County Resource Recovery Agency. She joined the OCRRA team in 2016 and also serves as Board Secretary.

Rizzo was previously the Administrative Assistant for joint research centers, The Center for Environmental Policy and Administration (CEPA) and the Center for Technology and Information Policy (CTIP) at the Maxwell School at Syracuse University. Rizzo graduated with an Associate Degree in Business Administration from Onondaga Community College.